GOLD SPONSOR OF THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

We don't stop at the finish
line.

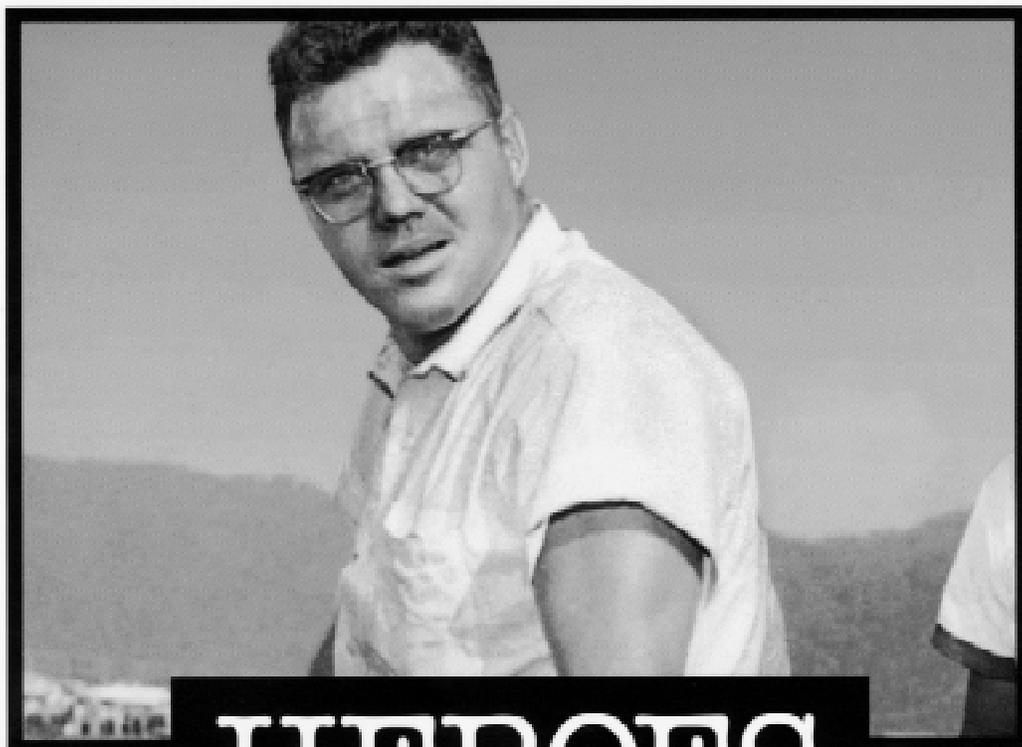

When the race is over, some manufacturers console their hired-out motorsport teams and head for the hospitality tent. We head for the office.

You see, we develop most of our winning Dodge race cars and trucks in-house. With the same people who work on our production vehicles. And on Monday morning, when the dust has settled and the racing stripes have turned to pinstripes, what we've learned on the track about endurance, safety, and performance makes us very quick thinkers indeed.
